
From: Kasanof, Alexander <kasanofa@state.gov>
To: K. Kilimnik </o=mex05/ou=exchange administrative group
(fydibohf23spdlt)/cn=recipients/cn=kkilimnik@dmpint.com35e>
Cc:
Bcc:
Subject: RE: an idiotic question
Date: Fri Aug 12 2016 16:28:19 EDT
Attachments:

Very sorry I missed this! A real bummer, as we could have hooked up. But let's shoot for Sept.? How are things?

My life feels very strange now, with no one asking me anything about Ukraine anymore. :-)

The program I'm in is a lot more intensive than I expected. They don't seem to give a shit if you were killing yourself in your last job, they want to see more of it... Oh well, still better than some of the idiocy I had to put up with before.

Hope you are well!

Best. -S

This email is UNCLASSIFIED.

From: K. Kilimnik [mailto:kkilimnik@dmpint.com]
Sent: Sunday, July 31, 2016 9:07 AM
To: Kasanof, Alexander
Subject: an idiotic question

Hey

I am heading over to NYC on Wednesday to touch base with my old boss on several household issues, and was thinking about making a trip to Washington DC to catch up with you.

Anyways, one of the passages in this article reads like this:

"The main lobbyist of Yatsenuk in Washington, DC is Toria Nuland, who is used to dealing with him since the time of his opposition to Yanukovich. Besides, there is another channel of communication, which is not known to a lot of people: the person who can put in a good word in Washington for Yatsenuk is Rinat Akhmetov's lobbyist Bruce Jackson, who has known Toria Nuland's husband Robert Kagan for many years. Back in 1990ies they both were leaders of neocon think tank called Project for the New American Century.

Am sure Toria will love it. And so will Jackson, who hates the guts of Yatsenuk. :)))

I do wish Ukrainian journalists focused on things more important for their country than Jackson or attacking their friends. :))