8. Please confirm:

a. the nominee reportedly served as chair of the Democratic Party of New Mexico's Native American Caucus from 2012 to 2013. If so, please explain why the nominee omitted to disclose this position on the Committee Questionnaire. Did the nominee receive a stipend or any form of compensation for serving in this role?

b. the nominee reportedly was a candidate for Lieutenant Governor of New Mexico in 2014. If so, please explain why the nominee omitted to disclose this position on the Committee Questionnaire. Did the nominee receive a stipend or any form of compensation for serving in this role?

c. the nominee reportedly was elected to serve as chair of the Democratic Party of New Mexico in 2015 and subsequently served a two-year term in this position. If so, please explain why the nominee omitted to disclose this position on the Committee Questionnaire. Did the nominee receive a stipend or any form of compensation for serving in this role?

d. the nominee reportedly worked at an antique auction shop while earning her law degree, as was reported in a July 26, 2018 article in The Guardian entitled, 'Congress has never heard a voice like mine': Native American woman seeks to make history. If so, please explain why the nominee omitted to disclose this position on the Committee Questionnaire.

e. the nominee has not omitted to disclose any additional employment position(s) required to be disclosed on the Committee Questionnaire. If she has omitted to disclose any additional employment position(s) required to be disclosed on the Committee Questionnaire, please provide all information about the position(s) required by the Committee Questionnaire.

ANSWER: In response to the Committee questionnaire, I provided details related to positions held since college in which I was employed. Although I volunteered for the positions listed above, these positions were unpaid. With respect to the 2018 Guardian article, it was inaccurate. I worked at the antique auction prior to starting college in 1988.