Hi,

Would 11am on Tuesday work for you? If so, I can circulate a call-in calendar invite.

Thanks,

Niyati

Hi all –

I wanted to ask a few follow up questions about the (b)(5) DP/AWP
(b)(5) DP/AWP I'm happy to convene a group call, or one of you can call me directly (my mobile [REDACTED] (b)(7)(C) I'm available until about 4:30pm today or anytime next week, absent a few meetings here and there. Just let me know what works best.

Thanks,

Good morning, Leah and Ezra.

I had a few questions about the (b)(5) DP/AWP

(b)(5) DP/AWP

I think a short phone call is probably the most efficient way to proceed, but I wasn't sure who from your team should be on the call. If you'll let me know, I can coordinate with them to find a good time.

Thanks,
Liz

Mr. Ruskell -

Thank you for your letter of September 1 to Mr. Lyons. Based on his phone conversation with you on August 31 and your letter, we understand that the Office of Legislative Counsel does not currently represent any state legislators in the federal cases challenging Senate Bill 202, although your office serves as counsel generally to members of the legislative branch in their official capacity.

At this stage, we are planning to speak informally with state legislators who voted against Senate Bill 202 during the 2021-2022 Legislative Session.

If you have any questions, we're available to discuss this by phone, if needed. My number is [b7c]

Have a nice weekend,

Leah Aden

Hi, all. As confirmed on today's call, each of the entities that participated in today's call (ACLU, ACLU of Georgia, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, NAACP Legal Defense Fund, Southern Poverty Law Center, Advancement Project, Campaign Legal Center, Perkins Coie LLP, Hughes Hubbard & Reed, Wilmer Hale; Keker, Van Nest & Peters LLP; Crowell & Moring; Kurt Kastorf Law Firm; Rogers & Hardin; The Law Office of Bryan L. Sells; Gerry Weber Law Offices; the United States Department of Justice, and any other counsel associated with them, in the suits they have filed challenging the Georgia law known as SB 202), agree on their own behalf and on behalf of their respective clients in this litigation, that they share a common interest in the successful prosecution of this litigation, and that they may share (but are not required to share) privileged communications and other litigation material between and among them without waiving the attorney-client privilege, the work product protection or any other privilege or protection.

Common Interest Communication -

Evening Bert and Jasmyn –

We hope you are well this evening.

Three teams—(b)(5) DP/AWP

to request another time to speak in follow up to our previous call. In particular, we'd like to discuss(b)(5) DP/AWP

(b)(5) DP/AWP

Do you have availability early next week to continue this conversation with us? I'm throwing out Monday at 2:00 est or later or Tuesday at 4:00 or later. Please let us know if you are willing to discuss and propose any alternative windows that may work for you.

Have a nice evening,

Leah

[Caution: EXTERNAL EMAIL]

Hi, all. As confirmed on today's call, each of the entities that participated in today's call (ACLU, ACLU of Georgia, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, NAACP Legal Defense Fund, Southern Poverty Law Center, Advancement Project, Campaign Legal Center, Perkins Coie LLP, Hughes Hubbard & Reed, Wilmer Hale; Keker, Van Nest & Peters LLP; Crowell & Moring; Kurt Kastorf Law Firm; Rogers & Hardin; The Law Office of Bryan L. Sells; Gerry Weber Law Offices; the United States Department of Justice, and any other counsel associated with them, in the suits they have filed challenging the Georgia law known as SB 202), agree on their own behalf and on behalf of their respective clients in this litigation, that they share a common interest in the successful prosecution of this litigation, and that they may share (but are not required to share) privileged communications and other litigation material between and among them without waiving the attorney-client privilege, the work product protection or any other privilege or protection.
