Probably from Elections and we share if it's along the lines of what you sent Jeremy. The bigger discussion on the county/board side, in my opinion, is whether to call out/hold accountable the elected officials who are participating in this misinformation.

I can respond to Brahm and cc you. As for social, it may be good to put something together. Do you think from Maricopa County or the Elections Department?

Hi Megan,

I caught Rachel Alexander's tweets yesterday... and then saw that she is writing for The Arizona Sun Times. Her lead line in this article is a lie: <https://arizonasuntimes.com/2022/04/10/arizona-attorney-general-brnovich-announces-prosecutions-after-reviewing-maricopa-county-ballot-audit-as-kari-lake-calls-to-decertify-election/> or misrepresentation (as was the "report").

Do you want to respond to Brahm or do you want me to respond using your statement from Friday?

Talk soon.

Good evening Fields,
I wanted to get this on your radar for tomorrow, if it's not there already.

Steve Bannon said on his webcast last week with Brnovich that Maricopa County used artificial intelligence to scan ballot signatures.
Rachel Alexander, a disgraced former deputy to disbarred County Attorney Andy Thomas (so not the best of sources), claims Maricopa confirmed it used AI.

What could she and Bannon be talking about?

Best,
Brahm
