Judge Abrams,

There is no valid reason in the world why Ms. Groghan has not responded to my settlement proposal -- other than to delay these proceedings with a deliberate and gross indifference that is alarming.

And with all due respect, I cannot understand your refusal to compel Ms. Groghan to speak to her superiors by a date certain and respond to my proposal by a date certain. How long is this going to continue without a response from the VA and without an order from you? I also don't understand why this case has been ongoing for 4 years with so little movement.

This is a travesty of justice that I cannot countenance any further due to my client's health, the death of one witness, the relocation of another witness, and the inexcusable passage of time and outlandish delays.

Regards,
