Mr. Aaron Ting

ActBlue
sent via email

Dear Mr. Ting:

The Committee on House Administration, the Committee on the Judiciary, and the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform are charged with ensuring the integrity of American elections.<sup>1</sup> To that end, the Committees are examining allegations that ActBlue, a leading political fundraising organization, allowed bad actors, including foreign actors, to exploit the company's online platform to make fraudulent political donations.<sup>2</sup> Documents produced to the Committees and public reporting indicate that you may possess information vital to our oversight.<sup>3</sup> Accordingly, we respectfully request your cooperation and ask that you make yourself available for a transcribed interview with the Committees.

Communications produced to the Committees indicate that while you served as ActBlue's Director and Associate General Counsel for Product and Privacy, you worked closely with ActBlue's fraud prevention team.<sup>4</sup> The Committees are concerned that ActBlue has maintained poor anti-fraud practices that may have allowed bad actors to make fraudulent political donations, including from foreign sources.<sup>5</sup> Fraudulent political donations corrupt

American elections and could amount to interstate criminal conduct.<sup>6</sup>

According to the New York Times, amid allegations of “internal retaliation,” at least seven senior staff members, including the Associate General Counsel, have resigned from ActBlue since February 21, 2025.<sup>7</sup> Documents produced to the Committees have identified you as the former Associate General Counsel who left ActBlue during this period of extensive senior staff departures.<sup>8</sup> Internal turmoil and mass resignations at ActBlue raise questions about ActBlue’s ability to comply with ongoing legal requirements under federal election law.<sup>9</sup>

Your knowledge of ActBlue’s fraud-prevention policies and practices and potential whistleblower retaliation makes your testimony critical to the Committees’ oversight. Pursuant to the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committees have jurisdiction to conduct oversight of matters concerning elections, civil liberties, criminal law, and U.S. national security to inform potential legislative reforms.<sup>10</sup> To schedule your transcribed interview, please contact Judiciary Committee staff at (202) 225-6909 as soon as possible, but no later than 5:00 PM ET on August 1, 2025. If you are represented by counsel, please ask your attorney to contact Committee staff on your behalf.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Bryan Steil
