

U.S. Department of Justice

Office of Legislative Affairs

Office of the Assistant Attorney General

Washington, D.C. 20530

The Honorable Charles E. Grassley
Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Chairman Grassley:

We write in response to your letter dated October 23, 2025, regarding exchanges between the Attorney General, Ranking Member Durbin, and Senator Whitehouse on the topic of Reid Hoffman. At the outset, we feel compelled to note the seemingly unprecedented nature of this request. To our knowledge, no Attorney General has ever been asked by the Committee to provide evidence in support of a question posed by the Attorney General to a Committee member. Moreover, we took the time to meet with your staff and explain the nature of the Attorney General's comments, describing in detail how the questions posed by the Attorney General relate to Mr. Hoffman's complex network of political donations, which is ubiquitous among Democrats. Despite that briefing, the Committee's correspondence followed.

Public reporting indicates Reid Hoffman has built an expansive and opaque political donor ecosystem throughout the country. According to the Federal Election Commission (FEC), he has contributed more than $70 million¹ to Democrat candidates and political organizations, including personally contributing $1.8 million directly to Democrat candidates and their committees.²

At the Senate Judiciary Committee's Oversight Hearing on October 7th, 2025, Ranking Member Durbin and Senator Whitehouse engaged Attorney General Pam Bondi in a conversation regarding transparency over Epstein documents and financial contributions from Epstein's reported longtime friend and ally, Reid Hoffman:

Durbin: According to a whistleblower that made a protective disclosure to my office, you pushed the FBI to review approximately 100,000 Epstein related records on an arbitrarily short deadline in March, and the FBI was directed to flag any documents that mentioned President Trump. Nothing came of that review until July when DOJ released an unsigned memo stating there was no client list. Why was the July 7th memo unsigned?

Bondi: The July 7th memo came from the FBI and the DOJ. Director Patel answered those questions very clear. And Senator Durbin, I find it very interesting that you refused repeated Republican requests to release the Epstein flight logs in 2023 and 2024. You fought that. Did you take money from Reid Hoffman? Campaign donations? Who was a huge Epstein friend. Why did you fight to not disclose the flight logs?

Durbin: I can tell you I did not refuse, one of the senators here wished to produce those logs and I asked her to put it in writing and she never did.

Bondi: I think Senator Blackburn would quarrel with you on that.

Durbin: I would quarrel with you as to Reid somebody that you mentioned, who I never heard of.

Bondi: Reid Hoffman.

Durbin: Who gave the order to flag records related to President Trump?

At no point in this exchange did the Attorney General accuse Ranking Member Durbin of taking money from Reid Hoffman, although he has reportedly benefitted indirectly from Mr. Hoffman's contributions, as explained below.

In an exchange with Senator Whitehouse, the following transpired:

Whitehouse: Treasury compiled suspicious activity reports referred to often as SARS that DOJ receives automatically. Hundreds that relate to accounts of Jeffrey Epstein. How many of those treasury SARs did you or Director Patel investigate?

Bondi: Senator, I'm not sure if you're concerned because you took money, I believe, did you, from Reid Hoffman, one of Epstein's closest confidants not only once but twice in 2018 and 2024, if that's correct? But senator, did you ask Merrick Garland any of this over the last four years when he sat before you? This investigation has been going on. This investigation was closed. Did you ask Alex Acosta that?

Whitehouse: When you and Patel came into office you said you would look into this. There were hundreds of suspicious activity reports. Some people would deduce from the fact they're called suspicious activity reports that there might be suspicious activity and yet you seem to have looked at zero of those suspicious activity reports involving Jeffrey Epstein accounts. Let me ask you something else. There's been public reporting that Jeffrey Epstein showed people photos of President Trump with half naked young women. Do you know if the FBI found those photographs in their search of Jeffrey Epstein's safe or premises or otherwise? Have you seen any such thing?

Bondi: You know, Senator Whitehouse, you sit here and make salacious remarks once again trying to trash President Trump left and right, when you're the one that was taking money from one of Epstein's closest confidants, I believe--I could be wrong, correct me--Reid Hoffman, who was with Jeffrey Epstein on multiple occasions and the Senator sitting right next to you tried to block the flight logs from being released and yet you're grilling me on President Trump and some photograph with Epstein, come on.³

Again, Attorney General Bondi asked Senator Whitehouse whether it was correct that he had received contributions from Mr. Hoffman, and he refused to answer. While that may be his prerogative, it is curious that Senators Durbin and Whitehouse have demanded “evidence to support [the Attorney General’s] testimony” when it is not the Committee’s practice to require Senators to produce evidence supporting each and every question they propound to witnesses who appear before it.

This disparity aside, with regard to Mr. Hoffman, and as we advised your staff, publicly available evidence shows significant financial connections directly and/or indirectly supporting Ranking Member Durbin, Senator Whitehouse, and their colleagues, and these findings warrant serious scrutiny.

Despite their repeated denunciations of “dark money” and demands for political transparency, many Democrat Senators, including Durbin and Whitehouse, have reportedly benefited—directly and/or indirectly—from Mr. Hoffman’s extensive financial network. These are the same types of funding structures they routinely condemn when discussing conservative organizations.⁴

Some of the connections between Mr. Hoffman’s spending and Senators Durbin and Whitehouse are clear from public sources. Mr. Hoffman reportedly has given a total of $90,000 to the Rhode Island Democratic State Committee since 2016,⁵ which in turn not only gave in-kind donations to Whitehouse for Senate in 2017,⁶ but also spent roughly $108,000 supporting Senator Whitehouse in his 2018 and 2024 elections.⁷ As further documented by the FEC, Mr. Hoffman also contributed thousands of dollars to Common Ground PAC in 2022.⁸ Common Ground PAC then gave $10,000 to Whitehouse for Senate in 2023.⁹ Mr. Hoffman similarly has given $60,000 to the Democratic Party of Illinois since 2019,¹⁰ which has in turn financially supported the Friends of Dick Durbin Committee.¹¹

Mr. Hoffman reportedly maintains several deep ties to liberal dark-money groups, most prominently through the Aphorism Foundation, his San Francisco-based giving vehicle that underwrites a wide array of radical leftist dark money organizations. Aphorism donated over $8 million to the Barack Obama Foundation in 2018,¹² and by 2021 had contributed more than $25 million to the foundation.¹³

Aphorism has also reportedly been a major funder of groups that work directly with Democratic Senators. One such organization is Opportunity@Work, whose Board of Directors includes Hoffman himself.¹⁴ In August 2024, Opportunity@Work publicly

Aphorism likewise supports New America Foundation,¹⁶ another left-leaning organization, where per his own LinkedIn profile, Mr. Hoffman has served on the Board of Directors, and he has provided more than $3,250,000 in funding.¹⁷

A special project of New America is the Open Technology Institute,¹⁸ which endorsed and advocated for the Digital Equity Foundation Act of 2023 (S. 599), specifically thanking its Democrat Senate co-sponsors,¹⁹ including Ranking Member Durbin.²⁰

Most notably, the Aphorism Foundation is linked to Patriotic Republic, a 501c4 organization. Mr. Hoffman served as the President of Patriotic Republic in 2019;²¹ that year it awarded $4 million -- $2 million each to both ACRONYM and the Sixteen Thirty Fund.²² The Sixteen Thirty fund, developed by a radical Clinton administration alumnus of Arabella Advisors, is among the most active liberal dark-money groups, known for mounting attacks against vulnerable Republican Senators during the 2020 election cycle.²³

When Senator Whitehouse testified before a House Judiciary subcommittee in September 2020, he refused to answer questions regarding his own ties to Sixteen Thirty and dark money organizations—organizations like those Reid Hoffman founded and funded.²⁴ As the Wall Street Journal Editorial Board observed, “Mr. Whitehouse’s silence about his own ties to dark-money networks shows his goal isn’t to clean up politics. He wants to silence those who disagree with him.”²⁵

When Senator Whitehouse was asked again—five years later—about his relationship with Democrat megadonor Reid Hoffman, he once more deflected rather than address his purported ties to Mr. Hoffman’s dark-money apparatus. The reality is unmistakable: Mr. Hoffman has poured millions of dollars into groups that consistently and explicitly support and benefit Senator Whitehouse and his colleagues. More examples include:

- Mr. Hoffman contributed more than $1.2 million to the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee during the tenure of Ranking Member Durbin and Senator Whitehouse;²⁶
- An Act Blue fundraising link states that Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee resources “will be split evenly between DSCC and Sheldon Whitehouse’s Oceans PAC.”²⁷

Given the Ranking Member’s and Senator’s professed concern over connections to this Epstein ally, they should be equally disturbed by the vast sums of funding flowing to their colleagues’ campaigns, committees, and affiliated dark-money organizations. According to the FEC, Mr. Hoffman made more than 1,650 contributions exceeding $76,635,030.00 to Democratic candidates and committees—an amount that does not include his purported contributions to dark money organizations.²⁸ As seen by the table below, his contributions to left wing organizations are both extensive and substantial.

In summary, the evidence paints a clear picture that Reid Hoffman has established a dark-money empire that channels anonymous donations through nonprofits and PACs to influence federal elections and judicial nominations. Additionally, Ranking Member Durbin, Senator Whitehouse, and other Senate Judiciary Committee members have apparently benefited from this system, and their continued public attacks on “dark money” while accepting Mr. Hoffman’s indirect financial support are troubling.

For these reasons, there is no ambiguity regarding the relationship Mr. Hoffman has with the Democrat members of the Senate. The Attorney General merely posed the question—perhaps now we know why the Senators did not want to reply.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrick D. Davis
Assistant Attorney General

cc: The Honorable Richard J. Durbin
Ranking Member
Committee on the Judiciary
United States Senate
